Stefanie,

What do you think of doing a special online exclusive Trek Long Island T-Shirt or special merch that's online only that we can link through <https://merch.amazon.com/landing> aside from just the in convention shop?

If we list a t-shirt for $21.99, we would get $6.39 in profit. It would be listed on Amazon for purchase and shipped via Amazon. We would just get the profit.

Thoughts?

Let me speak to my marketing director. I dont want to step on his feet is he has something planned. He owns a t shirt (and other stuff) business. He is the person who wrapped my car

No problem. Let me know what he says regarding a limited run.

I'm just curious if he has a specific plan for online merch so we don't overlap. Just trying to think of revenue/sales streams for you.

I can also do an in-app iPhone Business Spotlight for him if you'd like.
