NOTES TO CUSTOMER

Customer disparaged B. Carroll on social media and continued to act in bad faith as well as blocked any electronic correspondence for settlement. Both apps were placed on github after lack of payment and lack of professionalism by Stefanie. Stefanie blocked B. Carroll on social media platforms from engaging or responding to disparaging and falsehoods and other negative comments that harm developer economically and professionally. Codebase remains property of B. Carroll. No transferring of rights of copyrighted graphical artwork will occur. Customer, Stefanie is paying for additional labor required to respond and limited use license of codebase for convention period: June 12 - 14, 2026. Acknowledging and paying this invoice is doing the right thing towards the developer and adhering to limited license and acknowledging desire to restore B. Carroll's ability to engage via Facebook, his ability to attend the event and hold harmless any future claims towards the coding this year's app.
